DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-8 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bocock et al., U.S. Patent # 6,894,565 B1.

Fig. 8 of Bocock et al. discloses a circuit comprising: a power amplifier circuit (100) having a power supply regulated output power level; a power supply transistor (M1) coupled to the power amplifier circuit and operable to control a power supply to the power amplifier circuit in response to a drive signal; a drive circuit (104, M12) coupled to the power supply transistor and operable to generate the drive signal in response to a power level input signal (V_{APC}); characterized by further comprising: means (104, 107) for determining an operating characteristic of the power supply transistor; and a control circuit (111) coupled to the drive circuit (104, M12) and operable to control the drive signal in response to the operating characteristic; loop from drain of M1 through 104, 107, 111, M12 to gate of M1 can be read as a negative feedback loop.

Claims 1-6 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cioffi et al., U.S. Patent # 6,781,452 B2.

Fig. 3 of Cioffi et al. discloses a circuit comprising: a power amplifier circuit (SMPA L) having a power supply regulated output power level; a power supply transistor (Q1) coupled to the power amplifier circuit and operable to control a power supply to the power amplifier circuit in response to a drive signal; a drive circuit (101) coupled to the power supply transistor and operable to generate the drive signal in response to a power level input signal (Input signal 103); characterized by further comprising: means (105) for determining an operating characteristic of the power supply transistor; and a control circuit (109, 120) coupled to the drive circuit (101) and operable to control the drive signal in response to the operating characteristic; loop from 105 through 109, 120 to 101 can be read as a negative feedback loop.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 9-18 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. U.S. Patents # 6,701,138 B2, # 6,825,725 B1, # 7,106,137 B2, and # 4,320,350 contain some limitations of the claimed invention.
